Is cúis áthais dom fáilte a chur romhat go Páirc de hÍde inniu do cluiche cheannais na mionúir i gConnacht. Tá súil agam go mbeidh cluiche maith spoirtúil idir an dá fhoireann.

I'd like to welcome you all here today to Dr Hyde Park for the Connacht Minor Football Final between Roscommon and Sligo in what promises to be a fantastic occasion. Both teams had brilliant performances in their semi finals so all the indicators are today's contest will be another thriller. The Rossies came back from the dead to see off Galway in Tuam and Sligo looked very impressive particularly in the second half against a good Leitrim outfit.

I'd like to welcome all supporters to today's game. Unfortunately in today's times we live in the attendance is limited, but it is very welcome to have 1,500 allowed in this evening and hopefully the trend of increased capacities is one that continues! Well done to all supporters who have adhered excellently to the Covid guidelines so far this summer, thank you. I'd like to commend the staff here at the Hyde for the wonderful work they do and the superb presentation of the facilities. Huge thanks also to the sponsors, particularly Electric Ireland in the minor competition. My best wishes to the referee John Glavey and his officials and I ask all present to give them the respect they deserve.

Aghaidh leis na gcluichí!
